Arrangements are complete for the "Day at CIA" to be held on 15 January in the USIB Conference Room and 1A13 at Headquarters.

Twenty-six senior officers from ten government organizations will

STATINTL attend. The two CIA representatives, [] NPIC, and []

STATINTL [] FE, will act as moderators. Mr. Colby will open the session,

STATINTL to be followed by Messrs. Proctor, Karamessines, []

Coffey, and Duckett. The closing speaker will be General Walters.

c. Drug Abuse Seminar

The last running for 1972 was held at Headquarters on 19 December with 32 persons in attendance. This was the 21st regularly scheduled seminar conducted since they were begun in July 1972. About 560 personnel have attended to date. The next seminar is scheduled for 16 January in room GA 13 at Headquarters.

2. General

STATINTL a. On 15 January, [] the Language School will begin a two-week work session with the training staff of the Special Projects Division, Office of Communications, in an effort to develop language materials specifically designed to meet OC's special requirements. Larry will be involved in writing exercises for listening comprehension which will reflect the actual traffic in OC's files.

b. As a result of discussion in the newly formed Interagency Germanic Roundtable, the Language School will provide the German Branch of the Defense Language Institute with cassette recordings [] STAT [] on a six-month trial basis (one tape per week).

STAT FSI has been using [] for some time. Providing tapes to DLI will require no appreciable increase in effort on our part.

3. Notes
